and the 2018 Sydney International Metropolis Conference

→ FREE Sydney Metropolis PhD Workshop Program

→ Scholarships for PhD Students to attend METROPOLIS

The International Metropolis Conference will be held in Sydney from 29 October to 2 November 2018.

Metropolis remains the premier international conference for immigration scholars, policy makers and community sector organisations and workers. Plenary speakers at the Sydney International Metropolis Conference include leading scholars Peggy Levitt, USA, Brenda Yeoh, Singapore and Ian Goldin, UK, policy makers Marina Manke from the International Organisation for Migration, Geneva, community leaders and activists including Tolu Olubunmi, USA, Rez Gardi, New Zealand, and Ursula Rakova, PNG and key business and industry leaders Innes Willox and Lynn Dang. You can see the full list of invited speakers here.

On Monday 29 October there will be a FREE Sydney Metropolis PhD Workshop Program at the UTS Business School.

This is open to any graduate student attending an Australian university. The program will include presentations from leading international and Australian immigration scholars, including Professor Dan Hiebert (Geography University of British Columbia, Canada) and Professor Pieter Bevelander, (Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare Malmö University, Sweden). Australian immigration scholars include Professor Jock Collins (UTS Business School) and Professor Alan Gamlen (Geography, Monash University). PhD students will also have the opportunity to present a five minute summary of their PhD topic to a panel.

Please register your intention to attend – including University affiliation and PhD Topic – with Dr Kathy Watson (katherine.watson@uts.edu.au) by 30 September 2018.

Morning and afternoon tea and lunch provided.

The Organising Committee for the Sydney International Metropolis Conference has also just announced that 25 scholarships are available for PhD and other graduate students to pay for the full conference registration fees, valued at $750. Scholarship applicants should send an application to Dr Kathy Watson (katherine.watson@uts.edu.au) by 30 September 2018. The application should include University affiliation, PhD Topic, a CV and a letter of support from your supervisor.
