

הִנֵּה מַה טוֹב וְמַה נְּעִים
שֹׁבֵת אֶחָיִם / אֶחָיוֹת
גַּם יַחַד

Here is what's good and what's pleasant,
a sitting of brothers / sisters,
also together.

Why Teach about the Holocaust Today?

The Vision of the Holocaust Centre of New Zealand (HCNZ) is that through testimony, experience and education, to inspire and empower us all to stand up against prejudice, discrimination and apathy.

www.holocaustcentre.org.nz

How does HCNZ promote the lessons learnt from the Holocaust, and share them with others?

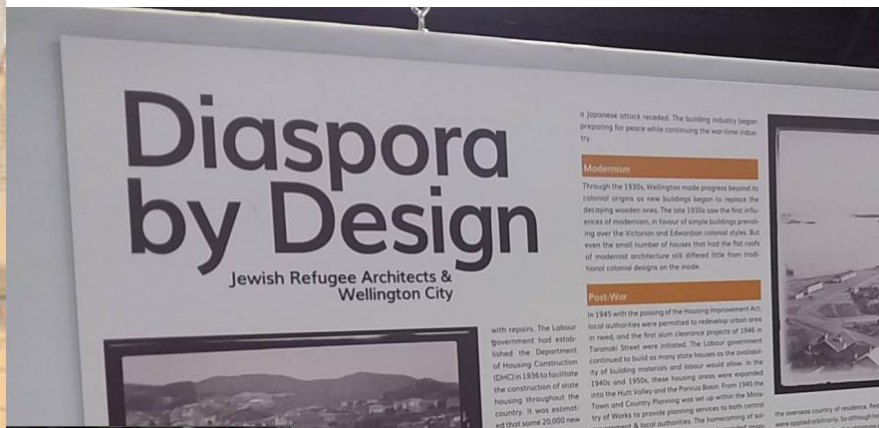

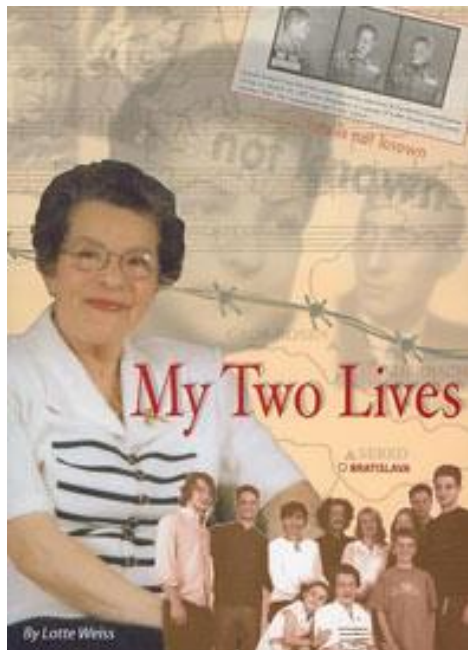

High School Group Visits and Visiting High Schools throughout NZ

Adult Education Classes and Professional Development for Teachers

Recording Survivor Testimonies, Producing Displays and Exhibits, at HCNZ and around NZ

PAUL SEIDEMAN HOLOCAUST ESSAY COMPETITION

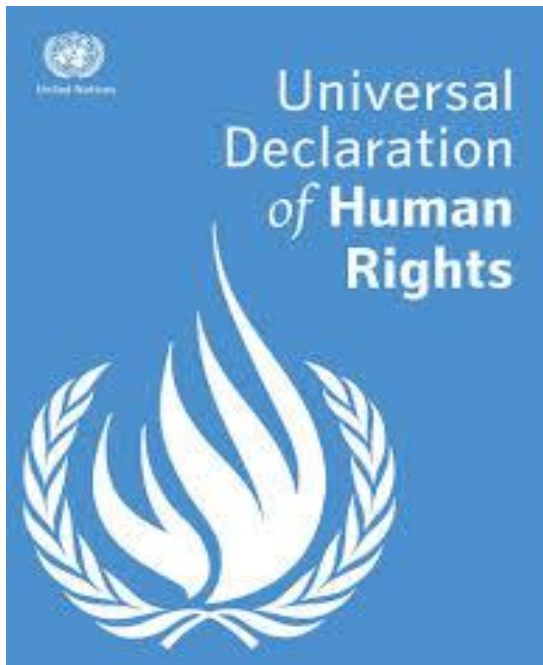

Eligible pupils	Prize	Topic	Deadline	Results	Prize presented
Year 10 & Year 11	$200	The Holocaust and the lessons for New Zealand	21st November	15th December	27th January UN Holocaust Remembrance Day

Students can submit their essay as word doc or pdf either electronically to essays@holocaustcentre.org.nz or in hard copy to Paul Seideman Holocaust Essay Competition, c/o Holocaust Centre of New Zealand, 80 Webb Street, Wellington. By entering this essay competition students agree to the inclusion of their work in HCNZ publications and publicity materials.

Holocaust Memorial Commemorations and Remembrance Activities

UNITED NATIONS INTERNATIONAL
HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

Universal Declaration of Human Rights of 1948 was adopted by the United Nations in response to the Holocaust. The Declaration states that all people are equally entitled to human rights, that no one can take away your rights....

Please plan a visit to the Holocaust Centre of New Zealand so you can experience first-hand the displays and programmes that inspire and empower us all to stand up against prejudice, discrimination and apathy.

www.holocaustcentre.org.nz

Look at how a single candle can both defy and
define the darkness

Anne Frank